

What is expected of you as a Trustee?

We are looking for a trustee with a high level of knowledge and experience within the legal field.

The ideal candidate would be someone who is competent at navigating the legal landscape across a range of matters that may arise for us as a charity, from ensuring that any agreements Lighthouse enters into are representative and fair, to providing direction to external resources if and when any issues arise with the operations of the organisation.

In person attendance to quarterly board meetings would be encouraged to build relationships with other trustees and Lighthouse team members (hybrid can be facilitated on occasion)

We expect that this position will require an investment of 3 hours of your time per month.

Location: A mix of online and face-to-face meetings.

Commitment: Approximately four board meetings per year, including one board strategy half-day (board meetings usually take place in person in Brighton but can also be attended online). Meetings will last a maximum of two hours, with breaks included. Food provided if in-person.

Remuneration: Voluntary. Trustee meetings are unpaid, but travel and other reasonable expenses are reimbursed where applicable.

Duration of term: A maximum duration of four years.
